No. Your State of Wisconsin Driver License does NOT need to have a current address on it. When you present your photo ID to receive a ballot in the next election, the poll workers will not be looking at the address. However, if you still need to register to vote at your address, you will need to present a document called proof of residence that proves where you live, this could be your State of Wisconsin Driver License or it could be another document such as a utility bill.

WHAT WILL THE ELECTION WORKER BE LOOKING FOR ON MY STATE OF WISCONSIN DRIVER LICENSE?

The election worker will be looking for three things on your Wisconsin Driver License:

- 1) Your Photo. Election workers know looks can change, but please make sure that if your appearance has significantly changed that your photo still reasonably resembles you.
- 2) Your Name. Poll workers will be looking to see that your name matches what is on the poll book. It doesn't need to be an exact match. For example, if your ID says "Robert" but your voter registration says "Bob," that's ok!
- 3) An Expiration Date. Poll workers will be checking to see that your Wisconsin Driver License is either unexpired or has expired since the last November General Election (currently November 4, 2014).
